

"HIGHLY RESPECTED"

Ms. Streetz

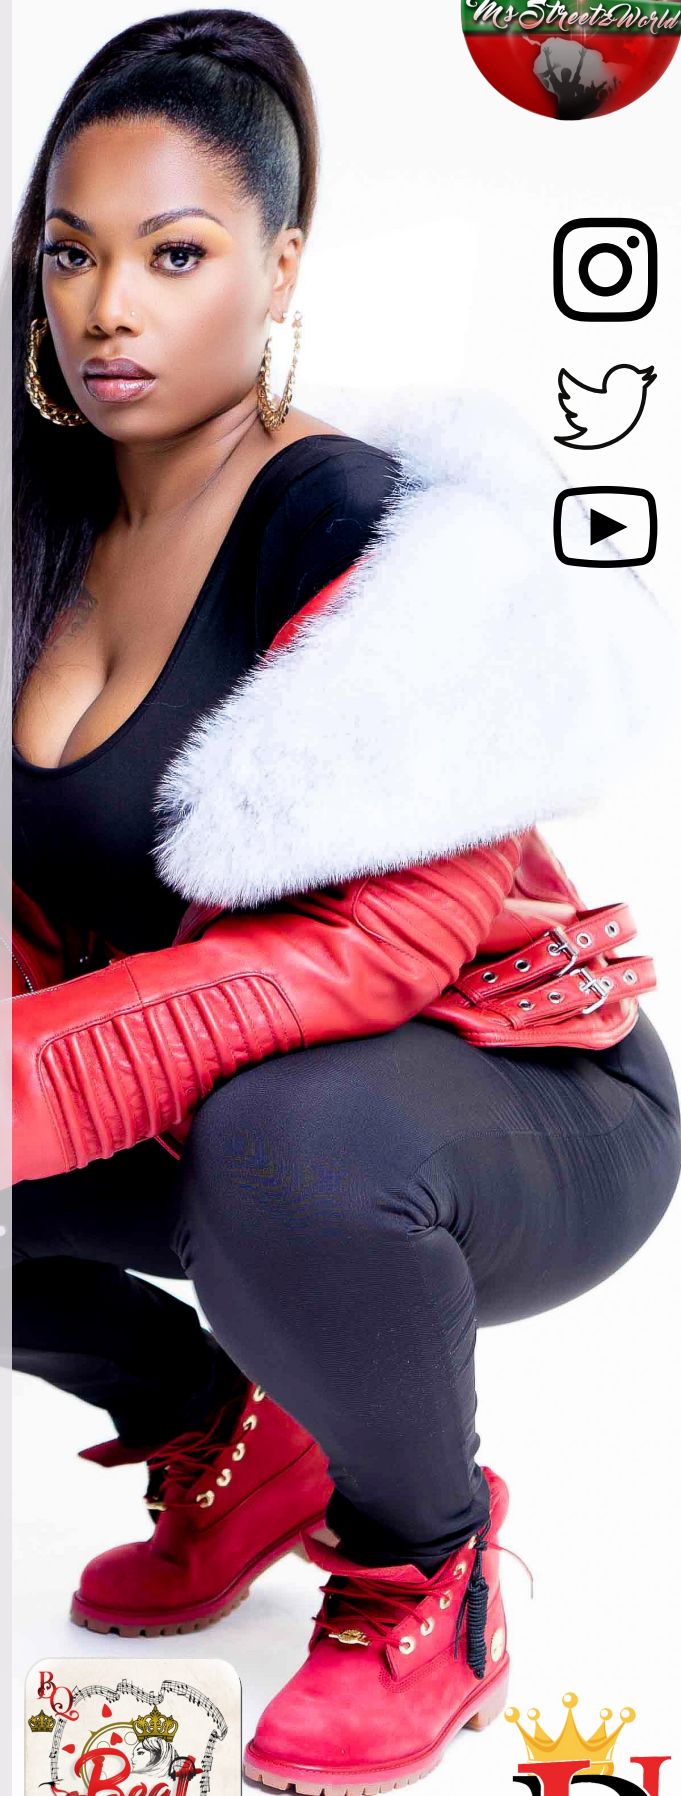

Amina A.K.A Ms. Streetz has been musically talented since the early age of seven. At this age, she began rapping, producing, and writing hooks to full songs, and making songs with her brother and cousins. She knew that she had an ear for music especially when seeing artists like Another Bad Creation, Kriss Kross, TLC, and groups that were around the same age coming up. Knowing there was a lane she kept on going.

During the hard times of early teenage years, Ms. Streetz still managed to freestyle and entertain people in school and in the streets. She always knew music was something she loved to do so she stayed motivated rapping in Jr. High and High school, that's when she created her own style. Which now she has become a great all around musician. Ms. Streetz is the name and music has become a part of her lifestyle.

In 2001 Ms. Streetz founded Mo'ILLa Productions along with best-friend and business partner Dj Ang Diamonds. Together they also formed Beat Queenz Music LLC, the hottest female music production duo. With having thousands of beats, this company has helped artist like Ms.Streetz, to formulate over 500 songs. She has written for numerous artists and is known as a ghost writer. She dropped her first independent album "1 Woman Army" in 2004 which was produced by Beat Queenz Music. The album sold 12,000 units in the streets independently and showed people that she is truly talented. Ms. Streetz performed at many clubs in New York City and Georgia.

Growing in this industry she has developed more skills and taken on many roles. Ms. Streetz started at That's Good Radio in 2009 with her own podcast show called "Ms. Streetz Goes Hard". For 7 years she dominated the internet airwaves. Ms. Streetz has done many interviews with talent like, Rich The Kid, Trina Braxton, Mr. Cheeks, Rotimi, Mr. Hanky and so much more. Currently she has launched a brand new web series entitled "Highly Respected" where she interviews talent similar to her past podcast. Ms. Streetz the artist went back in the studio and recently released a new song called "Spend It On Me". She continues to develop her skills to advancement towards her career. The woman of many hats!
